THE BIG SHOT.

After a bad start, Al Falfa rides off in his balloon to Africa. There he has several unusual experiences with animals, eggs and his gun. He seems to be enjoying himself immensely, taking pot shots at an elephant who is watching a jungle field day. But the elephant isn't as thick-skinned as Al thinks. The lumbering beast gathers his companions and chase Al to water's edge. Some sailors coming to rescue the old man turn back when they sight the angry mob and leave Al to strike out for himself.
